His lecture last night was on "Jean Valican," and this evening he will speak on "The Man Without a Country," Doctor Garver's exetching of these great novels is quite vivid, and his method of presenting the lessons involved quite impressive.

Last evening he arrived here and filed a petition in the City Court for an immediate dissolution of the contract existing between himself and Munday, claiming that the latter had contracted to manage an annual show, but instead had added troups of "hoochie-couchie" dancers, gayety girls and Mexican singers. These, he userted, gave indecent performances and did irreparable damage to his other combinations. The Court appointed Deputy Sheriff Houghland as receiver, and the officer had an exciting experience with the wild animals, as they had been unfed for two days while the litigation was going on. It is probable that the Court will rid liself of the difficult adjustment by putting the shows up at public auction and knocking them off to the highest bidder. The combination is billed to appear at Birmingham, Ala., the coming week.

Justice of the Peace Frank M. Kleiber performed the ceremony. The bride is 60 years old, the bridegroom twenty-five years her junior.

For two years Webb courted Mrs. Jenkins assidnously. There was no obstacle to their entering into a marriage contract so far as she was concerned, but only recently did he secure a divorce from his young and pretty wife, who had borne him two children. This he did in North Pakota, Thither Webb went nine months ago, obtaining a leave of absence with full pay.

Webb returned three months ago to his place behind the desk of the Broadway Central, a free man. Then he proposed, was accepted and arrangements were made for the wedding, in the Church of the Messiah, Park avenue and Thirty-fourth street. The pastor, the Reverend Doctor Minet J. ### IDIOT REFUSED ADMISSION.

Unfortunate Child Must Be Re turned to Native Land.

New York, Oct. II.—After years of industry S. M. Mulne, a Philadelphia shoemaker, was able to send to Russia for his wife and five children. They arrived at Ellis Island reveral days ago, and were detained, because one of the children, a girl 8 years old, was an imbecile. The law prohibits absolutely the admittance of any insane person or idiot into this country.

A brother of the woman, named Hodes, of Youngstown, O., saw Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor and arranged that Mulne should take the idiot child back to Russia, while Mrs. Mulna and the four healthy children should go with him to his home in Youngstown.

Arsistant Secretary Taylor said that under no circumstances could the child be brought into this country. If the father was able to give bond to the amount of a million dollars that the child would be well taken care of and that it would never become a public charge, it would have no effact, as the law makes no provision for the entering of kilots.

which has been holding its almost automace convention in this city since last Tuesday, has been made defendant in a suit for $5,000 damages for breach of comtract, filed in the Circuit Court of Jackson County at a late hour this afternoon by George T. Smith through his attorneys, J. H. Bremermann and David C. Beach.

The plaintiff in the case lives in Cincinnati, O., and he is claiming damages on the grounds that he was employed for life to perform missionary work in Japan, under the direction of the society, and was discharged at the end of seven years. Smith's attorneys claim that his efforts to obtain justice at the hands of the society is a parallel of the Dreyfus case in France. He has for years, it is contended, been trying to effect a compromise with the Board of Managers of the organization, and they have always refused to hear him.

On two or three occasions since the society began its annual session in Kansas Cult is claimed that Smith appeared before the Board of Managers and endeavored to have them consider a proposition to make a settlement, but his appeals have failen upon deaf ears.

List Saturday Smith tried to get the board to take the matter up, and he says in the petition that it refused to do so. Again this afternoon he made a last appeal to secure a settlement of his claim without success.

As a last resort he brought suit in the Circuit Court, and a Deputy Sheriff served the papers in the case on the close of the afternoon session to-day.

Elder Edward Williams of Benton Harbor, each out of town on Monnow and have been holding secret services. Elder Edward Williams of Benton Harbor, Mich., who was sent out of town on Monday, rode in to-day on a bleycle and gave the police a lively chase before they captured him. They sent him away on a train, but he said he would return every day, as he had been ordered to do so.

Deacon Homer Kessler of Chicago. Dowle's advertising manager, came into town to-day and went into the courthouse to find his lawyers. The police took him to the railroad denot and there he was rescued by three Deputy Sheriffs with a writ of habeas corpus. The deputies started for the jail with the elder and a crowd followed, throwing stones and clubs.

Deputy Sheriff Bell and Kessler were struck by stones and severely injured. They reached the jail and kessler was locked up and several deputies placed on guard.

The crowd is collecting around the jail, and other crowds are scouring the city for the hidden ciders, equipped with tar and feathers.

"NOTHING DOING IN ICE." It Is Up to Roosevelt to Pass or Lay Down.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Oct. 17.—Mayor Van Wyck's reply to the charges against him in connection with the lee Trust has been in the hands of Governor Roosevelt for two weeks and more. And Governor Roosevelt does not make it public.

This news comes from an unimpeachable Republican source. It is known to be true by the leaders of the Republican party who have examined the report and tried to find some way in which to dodge the issues it ruises until after election.

What makes the matter especially interesting for them is that Mayor Van Wyck has threatened, and they know it, that if the Governor withholds it from the public much longer he himself will make it public about five days before election.

The Mayor's answer reached Albany the last of September. Governor Roosevelt was not there. Lieutenant Governor Woodruff was supposed to be acting Governor, but he was not permitted to assume any authority. Private Secretary Youngs, who had neen looking for a reply ever since the time for answering had been extended to October 1, hastily scanned the document. It was red hot. It arreigns the Republicans as the party of trusts and makes direct accusations of fraud against them. It throws the gauntlet right into Governor Roosevelt's face.

The whole reply is couched in terms so direct and accusatory that Secretary

Youngs did not dare trust it to the mails. Instead, he took a train for the West, carrying the document with him, and placed it personally in the hands of the Governor. Roosevelt read it. He was very much disturbed.

Since then nothing has been done. The regular reply at the Capitol at Albany is: "Nothing doing in ice."
